

BOOK 2 PODCASTS ESCAPE FROM THE THIRD DIMENSION

This is the second element of my autobiography. After waking up spiritually and understanding that humans have forgotten that A MILLION SUPERMAN PUT TOGETHER HAS ABSOLUTELY NOTHING ON ONE SOUL, I became aware that I and the rest of humanity are slaves, I sought to escape from The Third Dimension. In such pursuit, I traveled to West Africa, the Amazon River in Peru, Mexico, and Costa Rica in search of my liberty. During these trips, I learned some terrible things about how the world is really controlled. I also learned some wonderful things such as the fact that time travelling is really real, and was finally blown away when I learned that the Universe is really expanding and it is a fantastic feast.
